

Happy
New Year!

Subway's Updates!

As everyone know we moved and attempted to downsize our warehouse. We also moved the machines and had more than expected problems setting them up again.

The machines that manufacture the cards and pages have now been refurbished and are up and running. We are currently working on the manila products machines.

During this time we also lost two main employees, who most of you knew:- Charles Homerick and John Turchetta. Both of their passings were unexpected and they are sorely missed.

We also still have to downsize our inventory. Therefore here is a listing off all our overstock at 50% off.

Thank you for your patience with us during this trying time.

Wishing everyone the best for 2020
